In accordance with the principles of ISQC1, the Board has appointed the Partner, Christos Tsissios, as Head of Assurance; he has responsibility for audit quality and for setting the assurance strategy.

Ethical requirements

Partners recognise that their behaviour is key to maintaining a strong ethical environment and culture. The Board has appointed Christos Christodoulou as the Partner responsible for Ethics.

We comply with the fundamental principles of the International Ethics Standards Board for Accountants (IESBA) Code of Ethics for Professional Accountants, which are Integrity, Objectivity, Professional Competence and Due care, Confidentiality and professional behavior.

Internal controls that support our ethical environment, including independence compliance, are routinely checked as part of the firm's risk management procedures.

- Access to engagement files restricted to those needed to have such an access.
- Securing hard copy files when they are not in use.

Our key areas of focus are:

- Our policies, agreements with clients, vendors and suppliers were updated to reflect the requirements under GDPR.
- Our IT systems, policies and governance were updated with a view to to protect personal data in line with GDPR.

Independence

Maintaining the independence of member firms, audit teams and other professionals is critical to sustaining public confidence in the audit profession. Moore Global Network Limited is committed to ensuring that its independence policies and procedures are robust and provide clients of member firms, other users of audit reports and the investment community with confidence that Moore Global Network Limited member firms and their professionals are independent and objective.

In addition to our own independence practices, Moore Global Network Limited requires member firms to adopt policies and procedures that have been designed to safeguard independence on assurance engagements and identify circumstances that could pose a conflict of interest. The global independence policies and procedures are based on the IESBA Code of Ethics with supplements to govern compliance with our global independence and international relationship checking processes. Member firms are also required to adhere to their local regulatory requirements where more restrictive.

Independence policies and practices cover, amongst others the following:

- Personal and firm independence
All partners and staff are required to complete an annual compliance confirmation, whereby they confirm their compliance with all aspects of the firms' independence policies including their own personal independence. These annual confirmations are supplemented by engagement level independence declarations by all involved team members for each audit client.
- Non-audit services provided to assurance clients
The policy is supported by a list of permitted services which provides guidance in respect of the application of the policy for providing non-audit services to audit clients. In this respect the firm has implemented safeguards to mitigate any independence threats arising from providing permitted non-audit services to audit clients.
- Long association
A rotation tracking process is followed that monitors compliance with the firms audit rotation policies for audit partners and managers.
Rotation of Key audit partners and senior staff members
The Firm's quality manual which is also aligned to the requirements of Article 17(7) of the Regulation (EU) No 537/2014 on specific requirements regarding statutory audit of public-interest entities in EU provides that key audit partners responsible for carrying out a statutory audit shall cease their participation in the statutory audit of the audited entity not later than seven years, and to maximum of 10 years for managers, from the date of their appointment, followed by a three years cooling off period for both.

The appointed key audit partner has completed two years as an audit partner of the only PIE currently audited by the Firm

- Global independence system and conflicts checking
Avoiding financial interests in an assurance client, or its affiliate, prohibited by the independence rules is a key objective in maintaining the independence of member firms and the client service engagement teams. Individuals and member firms are assisted to achieve this objective, through "Copernicus" - an automated tracking system that identifies restricted entities (issuers of publicly traded securities in which financial interests are prohibited or restricted). This information is made available to all personnel in all member firms.

Copernicus is designed to identify services provided by member firms to affiliated entities. The data is connected using the identity of the ultimate holding company ('UHC'), irrespective of whether or not the UHC is a client of a member firm. An entity becomes a client once a job for that entity is entered on to Copernicus. An entity may be entered as a UHC without being a client; other affiliated entities should be entered only if they are a client. It is not intended that Copernicus provide a comprehensive list of entities affiliated with a particular UHC but only those that are clients.

Copernicus provides with the minimum information necessary to assess the nature of client relationships for affiliated clients and then for you to make contact with relevant individual(s) to clarify and resolve any potential conflicts of service offering.

Copernicus was designed in compliance with the IESBA Code of Ethics. This Code is also the national code for many countries. The detailed requirements of all relevant code(s) should be taken into consideration when determining whether or not there is a potential conflict or service offering. Data concerning affiliated entities may be relevant even where a member firm does not act for the Ultimate Holding Company in any capacity.

Acceptance and continuance of clients and engagements

Our firm has acceptance and continuance systems in place in all service areas to ensure that each client assignment is delivered to consistently high standards of professional and technical excellence.

Achieving professional excellence means accepting and retaining member firm clients that share Moore Limassol Limited's objectives of quality and integrity. Moore Limassol Limited's global client acceptance/continuance procedures integrate with member firm policies. The acceptance/continuance processes provide member firms with information to judge whether the entity meets or exceeds necessary standards of integrity and whether the member firm has the capacity to perform a high quality audit.

The acceptance procedure is part of the Moore Quality Manual and the Anti-Money Laundering Manual which is based on a template provided and approved by Moore Global Network Limited and the requirements of the prevention and suppression of Money Laundering Activities Law of 2007(L188(I)/2007) and the Combating of Terrorism and Victim Protection Law of 2019 (N.75(I)/2019) as these are amended from time to time.

The firm's policies and procedures for the acceptance and continuance of client relationships and specific engagements are designed to provide the firm with reasonable assurance that it will only undertake or continue relationships and engagements where:

- Having considered the integrity of the client the firm does not have information that would lead it to conclude that the client lacks integrity;
 - The firm is competent and legally authorised to perform the engagement;
 - The firm has the capabilities, time and resources to perform the engagement; and
- The firm and its relevant personnel comply with relevant ethical requirements.

Our audit engagements are categorised to drive appropriate risk management procedures. We only engage with clients where we have the necessary capacity, skills and expertise to meet client expectations and which will not prejudice our independence, objectivity or integrity.

A similar continuance procedure is required on an annual basis, or if there are any known changes in circumstances. Due diligence procedures are performed to all clients at continuance and the frequency is dependent on the risk rating of each client.

Human resources

People and Culture – audit team structures

We implement high levels of expertise within audit teams. Engagements are partner led, with substantial manager involvement throughout the audit process.

We set high benchmarks for recruiting trainees and throughout their induction and training programmes, the need for ethical behaviour and quality is reinforced. We undertake thorough appraisals and continuously carry out mentoring, professional, and personal development courses.

We are committed to ensuring that our people have the skills and expertise necessary to provide the range of quality services and technical excellence required by our clients. All partners and staff are required to keep up to date with the firm's own risk management, ethical and independence requirements.

We have both mandatory and voluntary training requirements, which are actively monitored. Internally, we provide technical resources and support which can include electronic technical updates, training workshops, professional and personal development courses and access to technical teams and committees.

While the majority of technical training takes place within member firms, Moore Global Network Limited makes a significant investment in on-going training for audit staff in all member firms in the global audit methodology and supporting technology, and in IFRS, through its Train the Trainers (T3) programme and the Annual European Technical Conference.

In 2021 we continued to follow the “Approved Employer – Professional Development stream” awarded by the Association of Chartered Certified Accountants (ACCA) and the Institute of Certified Public Accountants of Cyprus (ICPAC). We currently hold the platinum status of approved employer for both training and continues professional development, awarded by ACCA.

Engagement performance

Supporting robust audit delivery

Moore Global Network Limited views audit quality as an essential element of our business. To that end, Moore Global Network Limited provides resources to assist member firms in maintaining audit quality, including:

- an audit methodology, with supporting software (Caseware Audit International “CAI”), that is recommended to member firms globally
- policies and procedures contained in audit manuals that are benchmarked against international auditing, quality control, independence and ethics standards
- a comprehensive intranet service that includes up to date information for member firms on auditing, financial reporting, ethics and independence standards and guidance on applying them effectively.

Each year further investment is made in methodology development, technology, training, communications and guidance toward the continuous improvement of audit quality.

Supervision, review and consultation

We have a strong culture of consultation, supervision and review, which is embedded throughout the audit methodology.

Supervision of the audit, review of the completed work and coaching of the team by the engagement leaders and managers are key elements in maintaining audit quality. The engagement leader the manager and the quality review partner document heir review of the work done in CAI. CAI includes guidance and audit procedures that need to be performed in order to ensure that engagement teams have appropriately addressed all matters as required by ISAs. It also assists members of the team to track progress and follow up and resolve any pending points and issues, ensuring that all work is fully and completed and appropriately reviewed.

The engagement leader is responsible to ensure that the audit has been performed and documented as required and conclusions reached are appropriate by being “in the file” throughout the audit.

Consultation and support is given to engagement teams by the firm’s experts. Policies are in place for access to experts both at firm and at global network level.

Where appropriate, reviews by a second partner and the Head of Assurance provide additional levels of expertise and quality management.

Engagement quality review

All audit clients that are Public Interest Entities (as defined by the Audit Law), as well as high profile engagements, are subject to an engagement quality review by a second partner.

Engagement documentation

Upon completion of an engagement the engagement team is required to assemble the audit file, which comprises of the electronic and hard copy paper file (which is limited to original documentation obtained during the audit) and archive these files within 60 days from the date that the audit report was issued.

An automated archiving process exists, which is initiated manually by the engagement leader, for the electronic file preventing any further amendments being made to it. View access to the archived file is restricted to the members of the engagement team and to the members of the engagement teams of subsequent year's audit.

Engagement files are retained for a period specified by law.

Monitoring

Internal audit inspections are carried out annually to assess the quality of completed audit work across various areas of activity and industry sectors. The reviews are risk focused and review teams are selected from outside of the department under review and in coordination with the other member firm in Cyprus.

In addition to our internal monitoring programme, as a member firm of Moore Global Network Limited we are subject to the Quality Control Reviews (QCR) on a three years review cycles.

The QCR process includes an evaluation of policies and procedures of the member firm applicable to its assurance practice, benchmarking those policies and procedures against relevant policies and procedures of the international organisation. The team reviews financial statements, audit reports and engagement files and also the QCR Internal Monitoring Programme and ensures compliance with all aspects of ISQC 1 and ISAs.

Moore Global Network Limited quality control procedures

In addition to our own quality control procedures, as a member firm of Moore Global Network Limited, we are required to abide by a system of quality control that encompasses, at a minimum, the following standards issued by the standard setting boards of the International Federation of Accountants (IFAC), including:

- International Standard on Quality Control 1: Quality Control for Firms That Perform Audits and Reviews of Historical Financial Information, and Other Assurance and Related Services Engagements
- International Standard on Auditing 220: Quality Control for Audits of Historical Financial Information
- IESBA Code of Ethics for Professional Accountants.

Each member firm's system of quality control is designed to provide global and national management with reasonable assurance that audit engagements are conducted in accordance with applicable professional standards and global policies and procedures.

Member firms are required to have an effective internal inspection programme in place that meets the requirements of ISQC 1. Member firms are provided with templates to assist them in adopting their internal quality control programme. These templates include guidelines, work programmes, forms and examples of reports, all of which have been benchmarked against ISQC 1.

Moore Global Network Audit Review

Each member firm is obligated to monitoring review of its quality control programme, referred to as the Quality Control Reviews programme (QCR), at least once every three years. The QCR process is designed to monitor member firm compliance with professional standards and the MSIL global audit policies and procedures which are ISAs and ISQC1 compliant. The QCR is conducted by independent and suitably qualified reviewers, adequately trained under the overall direction of the European Technical Director reporting to the European Technical Committee.

QCR teams review the conduct of audit work performed by each member firm. The review process includes an evaluation of policies and procedures of the member firm applicable to its assurance practice, benchmarking those policies and procedures against relevant policies and procedures of the international organisation. The inspection team reviews financial statements, audit reports and engagement work papers and files and also the internal QCR Monitoring Programmes and ensures compliance with all aspects of ISQC 1 and ISAs.
